

Do you ever wish you could know the exact timing of Jesus' return?

What would change if you knew?

Should the day of Jesus' return surprise us or not surprise us?

From the following passages,
how should the return of Jesus shape the way we live now?

Hebrews 10:23-25

2Peter 3:10-14

1 Cor 7:29-31 (this one is tricky)

1Thess 1:7-10. (Does 'waiting' mean doing nothing?)

Should the return of Jesus make us more or less motivated to care for the environment? Why?
